

WILDEWOOD AESTHETIC DENTISTRY

WildeWood Aesthetic Dentistry has been improving people's lives with healthier smiles for more than 10 years in the greater Columbia area. Services offered that have changed so many lives include tooth-colored fillings, crowns with no dark lines at the gum-line, missing tooth treatments, orthodontics, dental implants, life-like veneers and sedation dentistry, to name a few.

If you are ready for a totally different experience than any you have ever had at a dental office, then you must visit WildeWood Aesthetic Dentistry. Their team of smile experts will amaze you with customer care that is unparalleled. They don't tell you what to do; they customize your care to help you accomplish your dental and smile goals. Together they have more than a decade of dental experience. Here are some comments from satisfied patients:

"They are all friendly and amazing, and I hope you go meet them today!" says Ryan Chadwick.

"I just can't say enough about Dr. Griffin and his team. Every time we come in we have a great experience," says Joey Campbell.

"The first time I came to visit WildeWood Aesthetic Dentistry, the atmosphere instantly made me feel at ease," says Cynthia Kendall.

Dr. Justin Griffin is Columbia's premier cosmetic, implant and sleep dentist. He has had a successful, cutting-edge, high-tech/soft touch private practice for more than 10 years. He has a passion for learning and delivering the highest quality dentistry. He is one of a few dentists in South Carolina who have the honor of being a Sustaining Member in the American Academy of Cosmetic Dentistry. Since receiving his Doctorate of Dental Medicine degree at MUSC, he has pursued continuing education in many fields of dentistry to help his patient's look and feel healthier and more confident. "We are looking for quality-minded patients who are ready to revitalize their lives through healthier smiles," says Dr. Griffin.
